Article (2)

Objectives

The Scheme aims to:

1. Provide mechanisms that enable the Federal Entities to motivate their working teams and employees in recognition of their valuable contribution and achievements, and retain talented and competent public employees, so as to enhance the culture of loyalty, competitiveness and achievement and upscale levels of overall performance; and
2. Achieve transparency, fairness and equal opportunities in granting rewards to eligible persons, in line with the objectives and directions of the Federal Government.

Article (3)

Scope of Application

1. The provisions of this Resolution shall apply to the Employees serving at the Federal Entities governed by the provisions of Federal Decree-Law No. (49) of 2022, on Human Resources of the Federal Government, of different job grades, employment patterns and types of work.
2. The following categories shall be excluded from the application of the provisions of this Resolution:
  - a. Employees on probation;
  - b. Employees appointed on a temporary employment basis if the term of the contract is less than (3) three months;
  - c. Employees whose service has terminated for whatever reason, except for Employees whose service has terminated for reaching the age of retirement;
  - d. Outsourced Employees;
  - e. Members of teams and committees to whom financial allowances are paid out under any legislation in force; and
  - f. The entities that have their own rewards and incentives policies and regulations.

Article (4)

Types of Incentives

The Resolution defines two major types of incentives that can be granted to Employees of the Federal Government Entities, as follows:

1. Financial Incentives: Including cash bonuses or incentives, or other forms of financial recognition.
2. In-Kind Incentives: Including certificates, awards or any other forms of in-kind recognition.

Article (5)

General Provisions

In order for any of the financial incentives set forth herein to be disbursed, the following requirements shall be fulfilled:

1. Appropriations must be available in the approved budget of the Federal Entities.
2. No single employee may concurrently benefit from both an annual performance bonus and any type of promotion, adjustment of special benefits or benefits of experts and consultants during the same year. A period of not less than (12) twelve months must have lapsed following the last promotion or adjustment of benefits or annual performance bonus received by the employee.
3. An annual performance bonus and any other bonus under the categories set forth in the present Scheme may be concurrently combined, without prejudice to the standards and conditions stipulated for each category.
4. An Employee may be granted more than one bonus or in-kind rewards, as per the categories described hereunder, within one year, except for annual performance bonuses that are granted once a year, taking into account the conditions related thereto.
5. The total value of all categories of bonuses, including an annual performance bonus, that an Employee can obtain in one year under the provisions of the present Resolution, must not exceed (AED 100,000) one hundred thousand dirhams.

6. The Employee must not have been subject to an administrative sanction during the year of nomination for any of the bonuses set forth in this Resolution, unless the legal effect thereof has been eliminated.
7. The Committee may add other standards or requirements, as required by the interest of work.
8. The Chairman of the Federal Entity may grant UAE national Employees, whose service has terminated for reaching the age of retirement, pursuant to Federal Law No. (7) of 1999, on Pensions and Social Insurances, as amended, and Federal Decree-Law No. (57) of 2023, on Pensions and Social Insurances, a cash or in-kind reward; provided that the value of the reward does not exceed (AED 50,000) fifty thousand dirhams, except for employees whose service has terminated by retirement and who are paid financial rewards under any other incentive policies or programs.
9. The Federal Entity may submit proposals to add extra categories or types of rewards by submitting them as a recommendation to the Federal Authority for Government Human Resources for consideration and decision, and then be submitted by FAHR for approval by the Cabinet.

Article (6)

Categories of Rewards and Incentives

The Employee, work team members or participant from outside the Federal Entity may be granted one of the following Rewards and Incentives:

Annex (2) to Cabinet Resolution No. (42) of 2024 on the Rewards and Incentives Scheme for Federal Government Employee

Governance Framework and Procedures for Granting Rewards and Incentives at Federal Entities

Nomination

The nomination for any type of bonuses/rewards may be made to the Employee or work teams directly by self-nomination, Direct Superior or colleagues at the Federal Entity. An exception to the above is the annual bonus, which is based on the Employee's performance appraisal according to the performance management system of the Entity. All nominations shall be submitted to the HR department of the Entity.

Submitting Supporting Documents

A nominee for a bonus shall submit such data that supports his nomination, in accordance with the criteria described for each category in Annex (1), attached herewith, including quantitative and qualitative indicators that support the description of each category.

Budgetary Check

The Rewards and Incentives Committee of the Entity must ensure the availability of budgets allocated for paying out bonuses, in coordination with the finance department and in accordance with the appropriations approved for the Entity.

Data Validation

The Rewards and Incentives Committee shall verify all nominations received for the honoring category, in accordance with the Rewards and Incentives Scheme, and shall verify the supporting evidence and data provided by the nominees and verify their authenticity, in coordination with the HR department.

Evaluation & Selection

Based on the data validation results, the Rewards and Incentives Committee shall select nominees according to the standards, conditions and controls for each category, and shall document them in the decisions of paying out allocations, and shall submit the lists/decisions to the Chairman of the Entity or his delegate for approval.

Honoring

The HR department shall coordinate with the department of finance to pay out the amounts, then, a list of Employees or teams whose bonuses have been approved shall be announced, as per the announcement mechanisms adopted by each Entity.
